One of my favourite projects was working for L&Q and Mount Anvil on the Silk District in Whitechapel, London. The application was for 648 new homes, with ground floor commercial and retail space and soft landscaping throughout the development. A great scheme in an excellent location. I was then very excited at the end of last year to be walking in the area and to see the project fully built and looking great!

Other than the many successfully projects, a highlight for me has to be successfully organising and hosting Evoke's 3rd Birthday Event. After months of juggling projects, workload and event planning, it was extremely rewarding for the event to be such a success and to celebrate Evoke's first three years with all our clients and friends in the industry, who have helped to get Evoke where it is. While I thoroughly enjoyed the organizing of the event, I won't be dabbling too much in the event planning industry!

Whilst it has been said by everyone before, my highlight for last year was Evoke being awarded 'Fastest Rising Property Business' at the TVPA and 'Employer of the Year' at the Royal Berkshire property Awards! It's great to be part of a company that has had so many successes in its first few years and even better to see they are recognised by others!

2024 is likely to be a tough year with the election looming, cost of living crisis and overall uncertainty in the industry. However, I am looking forward to continuing working on exciting projects and meeting new people. 2024 is also the year I joined the RTPI Thames Valley Young Planner committee, which I look forward to being a part of and organising and hosting events to connect with like-minded people in the industry.

Meet your new committee member!

GOAL FOR 2024

Last year I got a puppy and I love spending my weekends going for long dog walks and exploring new places. I recently got into running and have signed up for my first ever half marathon this year. I am now that person who loves running and goes for runs when on holiday! When not outside on walks or running, I am a reality TV addict, having watched almost all of the Real Housewives and Below Deck series, to name a few!
